Original data sources for variables and indicators in NEO CANDO

Population
Source: U.S. Census 1990 and Census 2000, Summary Files 1 and 3
Click here for documentation on data in Population category

Poverty and Income
Source: U.S. Census 1990 and Census 2000, Summary Files 1 and 3
Click here for documentation on data in Poverty and Income category

Households and Families
Source: U.S. Census 1990 and Census 2000, Summary Files 1 and 3
Click here for documentation on data in Household and Family category

Education
Source: U.S. Census 1990 and Census 2000, Summary Files 1 and 3
Click here for documentation on data in Education category

Employment and Transportation
Source: U.S. Census 1990 and Census 2000, Summary Files 1 and 3
Click here for documentation on data in Employment category

Housing
Source: U.S. Census 1990 and Census 2000, Summary Files 1 and 3
Click here for documentation on data in Housing category

Residential Mobility
Source: U.S. Census 1990 and Census 2000, Summary Files 1 and 3
Click here for documentation on data in Residential Mobility category

Crime – Cleveland Police
Source: Cleveland Police Department, Crime analysis unit
Click here for documentation on data in Cleveland Police category

Vital Statistics
Source: Ohio Department of Health
Click here for documentation on data in Vital Statistics category

HMDA
Source: Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council
Click here for documentation on data in HMDA category

Child Maltreatment
Source: Cuyahoga County Department of Children and Family Services
Click here for documentation on data in Child Maltreatment category

Crime – Juvenile Court
Source: Cuyahoga County Juvenile Court
Click here for documentation on data in Juvenile Court category

Source: Center on Urban Poverty and Social Change, MSASS, Case Western Reserve University